Endst No. 9/4/2022-4Jud (1)/

Dated, Chandigarh: 13.03.2024

A copy is forwarded to the Advocate General, Punjab, Chandigarh with the following recommendations/conditions: -

1. AG shall not issue any engagement orders in excess of the total number of posts (General + SC) advertised
2. During the scrutiny of applications, certain objections to the candidatures had been penned down by a panel of lawyers from the AG office, deputed to assist the Scrutiny Committee. The Scrutiny Committee had also made its recommendations based on the findings of these lawyers. As mentioned earlier, the Selection Committee has now recommended the names of some lawyers whose candidature had not been cleared by the Scrutiny Committee for the posts to which the recommendations have now been made. Since the earlier objections had been raised by a panel of lawyers from AG office, so the re-recommended candidatures shall again be verified carefully by the AG office at its own level before issuing any engagement order.
3. AG may be asked to carefully verify that there is no inconsistency in the recommendations of the Selection Committee dated 09.03.24, that distorts the prescribed ratio of MazhabiBalmiki and SC (Others) categories, before issuing any engagement order.
